“ My Sweet Judy,
She was loved by everyone. I meet Judy as a young teenager, she was like a second mom to me. Especially when my dad passed away, she was there to comfort me. I loved her laugh and sense of humor. Always brighten up the room that she walked into. I love you Judy, and will miss you so much.
You touched so many lives, in such a beautiful way.
Say hi to my dad for me, and pray for me.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Judy she was the sweetest, most loving, and kind woman you'd ever meet. She had that southern drawl I miss forever, and she was sooo real she spoke her mind and wasn't fake about nothing. When my brother's wife dogged out our family and devastated me with her cruel nature Judy showed me that people like that are far more insecure and hurtful because of who they truly are than anything, there are lessons in life only Judy could teach me and I'm so grateful God brought her into my life and I'm even more grateful for knowing her and having the chance to love her. She blessed me and my family in every way and she always rolled out the red carpet so to speak every time I came to her house. I never knew love like that until I became sisters in law with her and I'll never find another like her. To have a sister and friend like Judy is truly a gift from God and I'm saddened deeply that she is gone. I know she's in heaven and I know I'll see her there but my heart is so heavy and sad for her husband whom she adored and her God children that loved her so much and all her students and friends, but most of all her family her greatest joy was family, she will be and is greatly gonna be missed. Judy loved and missed the dollar stores here in the u.s. and I thought that getting the hand towels and taking them to Mexico would be a trend for years to come but I guess that god had other plans. Judy is loved by sooo many people here in the US and In Mexico geez there truly alot of broken hearts but also very grateful one's too for Judy was a ray of sunshine that is gone from all our lives. I will miss you forever love you Sister Judy Rest In Peace and see ya when I get there
