

Annette Ellen Bergquist

May 12, 1943 - November 13, 2023

Annette “Annie” Bergquist, 80, passed away peacefully at home on Monday November 13, 2023 after a short illness.

Born in Rockford, Illinois, she was the daughter of Howard Fritz Blade and Lois Annette Hannblom, Annie worked for many years as an accountant.

She was predeceased by her beloved husband Charles Bergquist, Sr. and one grandchild Kyle Barski. She is survived by her siblings Neal Blade and spouse Donna Blade and Karla Dobnick Roush.

She is survived by her beloved children Charles Bergquist, Jr. and wife Wendy Bergquist, Ronda Bergquist, Jennifer Thompson and husband Billy Thompson.

Also surviving are her grandchildren Anthony Barski and wife Caitlyn Barski, Matthew Bergquist, Annika Bergquist, Kaleb Carlson, Charlie Thompson, Jordan Kennington and spouse Luke Kennington as well as Jessica Joseph as well as her great grandchildren Adaleena Barski, Beck Carlson and Finnegan Kennington.

Annie’s tiny, little, self was filled with love and caring beyond measure. She never met anyone that wasn’t a friend. Many, many became part of her extended family and she loved them all as her children. Always remember Annie with a smile, just the way she'd want.

Services will be held privately by the family at a later date.

“ I was fortunate, although for a too short timespan, enough to chat with Annette online.

What a lovely woman.

I had been intensely researching my family's history (Blad) and, for the love of the Internet, I ended up in Annette's world. We had a clear connection. She was family. And that was so special to find someone just like Annette.

My heartfelt condolences.
