August 21, 2000 - April 13, 2024

Brandon Daniel "Red" Gosnell, 23, of Marietta, SC passed away on Saturday, April 13, 2024.

Born in Greenville S.C. he left this world far too soon. Red was the son of Laurie Ann Stamey Mercer and David Ray Gosnell SR along with with his friend and stepfather Rocky Mercer. Brandon's untimely passing has left an implacable void in the hearts of his family and friends.

He is surrounded by familiar faces, his late grandparents Gloria and Danny Stamey and his grandmother Betty Sue Gosnell along with his Earth side grandfather Steve Barbare and Billy and Vanessa Gosnell. He was a calming soul who embodied kindness and had a contagious spirit that lit up any room he entered.

He enjoyed fishing with his first born son Braxton Gosnell along side his Father David Ray. Red also enjoyed anything fast, along with his cousin Justin Wheatley and his brother David Ray "Scooter" Gosnell JR. Along with his son, Brandon also leaves behind a an unborn child, older sister Brittany Meyers, younger siblings Derek Mcelrath, Payton Mercer, Nevaeh Mercer, and Tagen Mercer as well as his cousin Courtney Wheatley and nephews Camden Gosnell and Dallas Gosnell. Brandon touched so many lives in the short time he was on earth.

“ I can remember watching this lil red headed boy run in and out of his mommas house everyday. When he was only 6 years old. There was never a dull moment when he was around but loved to aggravate his momma all the time. Brandon (Red) is like another child of mine and will be missed dearly by all. Rest Easy "RED" and save us all a spot. Its not Good Bye but it's See you later.
