In the beginning it was you and me.long before we had our family.cant believe your no longer with us can't believe the the suffering you went through 🙏🙏🙏🙏 what I know is there's no tears staring the Streets of that City your now in the arm's of Jesus when you arrived you had no money for that flight no luggage to carry no delays at the airport now your with family those who left us along time ago the face of our Lord and Savior you with all the saint's who I only read about so glad you found the Lord so Amber and my family will be with you again.miss you but don't miss the journey and the horrific pain you where in looking into your green eyes and seeing so much pain. You will be walking around the crystal sea visiting family .now your Amber Angel 🙏 Hope you told Dad I have Nathan a grandson . Hope your looking down sissy the day I get to bring Nate home so sorry you didn't get to see him .love you so much sissy.

One of the dearest friends I've ever had. So full of life, laughter, love and loyalty. A loving Mother and faithful to those she loved. That smile and laugh will never be forgotten. Rest I God's hands, dear friend. You will be missed.
