“ Mr. Carroll, Tim, Grant and family, You have lost a wonderful loving soul our prayers are with you. Miss Carolyn how I loved and admired you. A woman who never turned a hungry or homeless soul away. A woman who came into my life as if god had sent her just for me. She helped me in a time my faith had become weaken by the loss of my mother. She and I spoke of the scriptures, our children and husbands. We became steadfast friends. A few months ago we were talking over the phone and I told her Miss Carolyn you know what I like about you most, you are so easy to love. I of course didn't know then that would be our last conversation and I'm very glad now I did. Miss Carolyn was so very easy to love. Know that one day we will see her again and I feel sure she is watching and smiling down upon us. For she has surely found her place in the kingdom of glory.
