“ I knew Cindy through State Farm. She was born the day I got married. Always told her she couldn't hide her age from me. Always for years called her on her birthday or sent word by Doris to tell her Happy Birthday. So sorry to hear of her passing. Prayers for the family. May God Bless.

“ I have so many memories of Aunt Cindy from when I was young. She even went to the movies with us on my birthday when I was like 12. It meant a lot. I know Uncle Roy and the kids will be lost without her. She will be looking down on each of you everyday. I love you all!

“ For ALL of my cousin Cindy's family, her husband, her children, her brothers and sisters, her grandchildren, her aunts or uncles, nieces and nephews, her cousins: I knew Cindy when she was a little girl. I was her oldest cousin and had lots of sleepovers when we were kids until she moved from Michigan back to South Carolina. I was blessed to have dinner with her, Toni, Michael, Katie, and Aunt Robbie in October. I am stunned that we will never have another opportunity to sit together, but I am so grateful that we did. My heart hurts for your loss. My prayers are with all of you as you go forward without her. Treasure your memories. Smile through your tears. Remember how much she loved all of you!
