

Dustin James Case

February 27, 2018

Dustin James Case, age 20 of Travelers Rest, SC, died in an officer involved shooting in Chester County, SC on February 27th, 2018 in the late evening. Dustin was well known and loved by many and would want as many to be named as possible. Dustin is survived by his daughter, Addison Nicole Case and her mother, Kayla Nicole Bowman. He is also survived by his mother Pamela Jean Goff and Father, Roy Michael Case, his brothers Brandon Ray Williams, Curtis Michael Case, and Randy Lee Mast; and his sister Michelle Bridges. Dustin is also survived by all four grandparents; Carolyn Brown and Howard Goff on his mothers side and Emily and Leroy Case on his fathers side.

His surviving Aunts included Tammy Timmons, Angela Ballew and Sherry Case and his surviving uncles include Danny Holcombe, Ronnie Case, Clint Case and Danny Case. He had five nephews and one niece. Dustin had more cousins then one could count.

Everyone that came in contact with him became family and someone that he would do anything for. Anyone who knew Dustin, knew that he put family over everything. His mama and his daughter were his whole world; and if it wasn't right by them, he wasn't doing it. If you were looking from the outside in, the best way to describe him would be misunderstood. While there may have been madness that surrounded his life there was always a method to it.

For Dustin there was always intention for something better. Dying young is tragic and he had a full life ahead of him but Dustin lived more life than many.

He was the definition of “YOUNG WILD AND FREE.” If you ask anyone who knew him, I’m sure they have a story to tell.

The family invites everyone who has a story to tell to visit and say their goodbyes to Dustin on Wednesday March 7th from 12:00 pm until 2:00 pm at Johnson Funeral Home in Travelers Rest. Funeral Services will be held at 2:00pm in the Chapel with burial to follow at Mountain View Memorial Park. We will be allowing everyone to bring sharpies and paint pens to sign his casket. Wear what you would wear if he was alive and remember “He’s got this.”

(Obituary written and submitted by the family of Dustin Case)

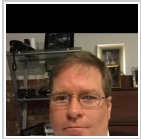

Visitation: Wednesday March 7, 2018 12:00 Noon - 2:00 pm

“ *Dustin,
Baby you were and still are my everything. It's still, to this day, so hard to believe you're gone. It's been almost 5 years we'd been together , and not once did I ever think the day would come I'd have to go on without you. My life was all about you and Addison. I miss you. I don't even know what I'm doing with myself half the time since I can't chase you down anymore. I miss you driving me crazy. We drove each other crazy. I just wish this was all a nightmare ... I love you Dustin James Case. With everything that's in me. You'll always be my soul mate, my husband. My heart will always belong to you. I'll see you again someday Babyboy. You're mine and Addys Guardian Angel. And we couldn't have asked for a better one. I'll be sure to make sure your Babygirl knows what an amazing person you were, and how much you loved her. You was a trooper baby. With so much more life to live. You'll get justice baby, I promise. One way or another. I know you're up there, proud of me though. Even through all this, I'm getting my self together. Everything you've always told me you wanted for me. Fly high my love. Forever and always.*

“ Dear Case Family: My deepest sympathy for the family and friends of Justin. We will never get used to losing our loved ones in death because as Ecclesiastes 3:11 says, we were created with everlasting life in view. But may you find comfort in knowing that Almighty God has promised that soon he will swallow up death forever along with the pain that it brings. (Isaiah 25:8) God has also promised to return Dustin to you as it says at John 5:28,29. You can also learn more about what happens when a loved one dies at JW.org.
Sincerely,
Susan

“ I pray that God will keep you strong during this tragic time in your life. We never know what tomorrow will bring but I take comfort in the verse in the book of Isaiah 57:1. It says that (the righteous are taken away young,in order to avoid the evil that is to come.) None of know a person’s heart and we are not here to judge. I pray for your understanding at this time and for comfort.

“ I sit here and read all of these beautiful goodbyes to you , and it fills my eyes with tears as well as my heart with joy. I can’t ask God why you want taken from everyone so soon but , instead thank him for the time we all had with you. I pray that your family will have some kind of peace throughout this tragic time . I remember talks we used to have and the one subject we would speak about , made your eyes light up and the biggest smile came across your face . That’s was your beautiful daughter. She may not have you physically anymore , but you have so many people that will always keep your memory alive for her. Rest Easy in knowing that we all will see you again one day..

“Dustin, dude; I don't know where to begin. We've had so many crazy times. Crazy good, crazy bad and everything in the middle. It sux so bad your gone after we just got to feeling comfortable again, that we wasn't going to loose you from the wreck. Today was the first time i have actually shed a tear. I haven't been able to so far, trying to be there and be strong for your mom and aunts. Were getting everything put together slowly. It's gonna be so hard in a couple days. I don't think I've had to go through anything this hard since my military days. I'm so glad you came and seen me Monday night...everyone knows that You “got this” but man,it's gonna suck here without you . I love you my friend. I know you knew that, but regardless of how much time will pass til I see you again, please don't ever forget that. Don't worry bout your mom and your aunts, I got them. That's my word “my friend”, my friend, my friend. Love yo bo.
