“ My dad.... there is so much to say about the Neverending love he showed. About how great a man and dad he was. His love for Christ. From getting up at 5 am every school morning to have family devotions. To never missing a church service. To waking up with a radio in every room of the house and even in his front pocket broadcasting preaching or sacred Hymns and gospel bluegrass. Always being there for me without fail even when I strayed from the Lord. I lost my best friend. I am struggling to cope with knowing I will never be able to call him, text him, hug him or hear him say I love you too Sarah. But what a peace I have knowing he got to see Jesus face to face. He has a body now that will NEVER fail him. He is praising the name of Jesus for all eternity. And I know one day I will see him again and we will never be separated again. I love you so much dad and I will miss you everyday until that one sweet day when Jesus calls me home. Until then I will do what you wanted in serving our Savior and I will continue raising my children in the Word of God.
