“ Leon will never die in my heart. I remember as a kid he would walk through the fielf (that later became uncle Ronnies home) that was below grandma's (his mom) and he always had a cup of beer in a cup or a can of beer in a koozi to hide that he was drinking because I was so young. The thing is I always new Leon to have a beer growing up. If he didn't I would probably thought something was wrong. Unlike most people I met through my lifetime, Leon was the only one that I knew that never had a temper when drinking. He was always coming to his mama's with a sales flyer to tell her of the latest sales on groceries to save her money and ask if she needed anything at the store. He always was good to his mama. Maybe a little stubborn at times but I never recall him getting fussy with her ever. I looked up to him for that. He was a good man, a great uncle and was always putting others first. Just a few months ago him and I went to Pickens flea market and walked the whole thing. He stopped by my house all the time to chat or ask if I needed anything at the store. Then on Oct 31, 2919 I saw him at Pats Grocery in Marietta sober, clean, and looking good. We kept joking back and forth and he kept telling me he loved me and would see me later. I'm gonna miss him dearly. He may have liked his beer, but that beer never interfered with what a nice man he could be. I love you uncle. I hope youre up there with grandmal, grandpa, and Uncle Ronnie catching up.
