“ Mickey Joe Phillips Sr.

“ I had the pleasure of training Mickey while we were at First Presbyterian Church in Greenville. Getting familiar with that large of a church isn't easy, but Mickey was soon closing the church at night. I have never met anyone who loved his deceased wife as much as Mickey. We had many discussions about her and it was obvious that Mickey had lost the love of his life when she passed. He also talked about his church, his musical involvement and there is no doubt in my mind he is dancing in Heaven now.

God rest your soul, Mickey...you were a great testimony and friend.
