“ A mutual friend, Betty Montjoy, introduced me to Nancy in 2016. I did not know Nancy for a long period of time but she became very precious in my life. I had recently lost my husband and was grieving. Nancy took me under her wing to minister to me by listening to me and encouraging me that things would get better. We spent many hours on her beautiful front porch talking about the Lord, admiring nature that surrounded her home and sharing our lives with each other. Her concern for all was inspiring. I saw her a few days before she went to be with the Lord and even as sick as she was she asked me about my five year old granddaughter who lives in California. She asked, How is Catherine doing. It amazed me that she could not sit up or turn over but she could remember my granddaughters name. This was who Nancy was. She was always interested in others lives. I am already missing her but thank God for allowing me to know this special lady.

“ Love and Sympathy to the children and Grands of Nancy. Nancy was so sweet, smart, neat, quiet she was a class mate we graduated from Blue Ridge High Schools together. I haven't saw her since but always look when I would pass her home . Children just know you will be in my prayers. Love / Linda Brown Dillard

“ I first met Nancy when we started 5th grade together at Mt. View Elementary. That was the year many elementary schools combined and the new Blue Ridge High School started! Seems so long ago in one way and such a short time in another. She was always so kind and so smart! I sorta envied her good grades. I remember her mother was a teacher at Mt. View also. Going separate ways after graduating in 1962 I rarely ever saw Nancy, but I always remembered her and would ask her brother about her when I would see him. Children and grandchildren, cherish her memory, she was a sweet person. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Gail Lynn Morgan
