“ Ronnie since you have been gone a load of memories have gone through my mind. From you pinching my cheeks when I would chew the head off your army men to the time you lost me in the woods. The most beautiful memories are knowing you were the best big brother I could have ask for. I use to look forward to your daily message. You always brightened my day. I still find myself looking for that daily message and probably will for a long time to come. It breaks my heart knowing I will never get that message again. I know we were many miles apart but you were always close in my heart. I miss you so much. 😭. Until we meet again on that glorious day. RIP my brother. I love you!!💔
