

Rosemary Bifano Brant

April 6, 1923 - June 10, 2022

Rosemary Bifano Brant, age 99, Went to be with her Lord and Savior while at the home of her daughter, Linda Byers of Greenville, SC.

Born in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter of James G. Bifano and Mary C. Bifano (Siciliano) She was preceded in death by parents; loving husband of 54 years, Richard D Brant (2003); a brother James M. Bifano; special aunt, Angelina Beal; and a son-in-law, Robert L Ralph.

Rosemary was a 1941 graduate of Johnstown High School and was employed as a Clerk at Johnstown City Hall until her marriage in 1948. Rosemary was a long-time member of Johnstown Grace Brethren Church where she taught Sunday School and sang in the choir. Her love for her Lord and Savior was observed by her daughters as they witnessed her love for the Word of God and her daily prayer life. She took every opportunity to share the Good News of the Gospel with those she met throughout her life. Her influence and testimony will live on in those left behind. Rosemary enjoyed spending time with her beloved family, especially her grand-children and great-grandchildren in her last few years.

Rosemary is survived by her children Linda Byers (Bruce) of Greenville, SC, Suzanne Vedock (Edward) of Johnstown, PA, Diana Ling of Johnstown, PA, Cynthia Ralph (Robert) of Fountain Hills, AZ, a nephew James Bifano (Laura) and cousin Sondra Horvath (John). Also surviving are grandchildren Jamie Meachum (John), Emily Pitts (Jonathan), Aaron and Brandon Vedock, Richard Ling (Angela), Brant Ralph as well as 8 (eight) great-grandchildren, 1 (one) great-great grandchild one niece and several nephews.

No services will be held in South Carolina. There will be no public viewing in Pennsylvania. Graveside services will be private at Grand View Cemetery in Johnstown, Pennsylvania.

Psalm 116:15 "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints"

Tribute Wall

“ Rosemary Bifano Brant

November 28, 2022 at 01:49 PM

“ 7 files added to the tribute wall

Emily Pitts - June 10, 2022 at 10:53 PM