“ You concealed your tears but shared your smile ..You gave so much and demanded so little.. You were a loving wife and mother . I will always miss you and I will always treasure your memories that we had together. You made me smile and laugh ,you were the one that looked out for the ones that needed help..I'm thankful that God put you here on earth to show joy ,happiness ,kindness and love that you showed to me and others... Love your baby brother.

“ Feels silly to leave just one comment. You were the most amazing mother. You always advocated for your kids, and anyone else who was down and out. You had a heart of gold, and a very rare and kind soul. I am heartbroken, but I know you're not suffering anymore. I love you Mom.

“ Jill was like a mother to me. When I was just a teen she took me in helped me out and took care of me as if I was her own son. I'll never forget the times we had. Thank you Jill for everthing. God bless and love you. Until we meet again.
