Tina Clark - May 14 at 11:04 AM

“ It doesn't matter the amount of time passed since I've seen Papa, he has & always will be in my heart & memories. We may not be blood related, but he will always be my Papa. With the most kindness soul & biggest heart, Papa will forever be missed. Thank you for taking me in & treating me as one of your own, for showing me what family is meant to be. You'll never truly know what you did for me & what you meant to me. Love you Papa.
