“ Praise our Savior for making a way to believe and trust in Him, for dying for our sins and making it as simple as believing in Him as our Savior...all sins forgiven never to be seen again as we ask for forgiveness.

Thank you for putting Tommy in our lives as an example, always there and willing to help with kindness and care. A great role model for all!

Thank you Jesus for the Covenant we have entered into when we all became brothers and sisters in Christ with the promise that we will be with you and your Father when we leave this Earth...and thank you for sending the Holy Spirit to comfort us in times like these.

Happy homecoming Tommy! We will miss you but rest in knowing where you have gone. Jan

I am deeply saddened by the passing of Tommy he touched the hearts of me, Cheryl and my husband Bill, when we meant and grew to know him as a joy and true friend. His faith and love for Jesus Christ was unspeakable as a witness for him. He will truly be missed by all but we know that Gods timing is not ours here on earth and will all have that same calling. We need to be ready to meet our savior as we will then meet Tommy again also, so for now untill then we will carry on as a wittness for you, rest in peace dear friend. Love Cheryl and Bill.

Daddy, it's been 2.5 years since you were called Home. I just re-read all the comments on here and it's heart-warming to see that all comments described you the same and were consistent in your qualities. This means you lived your life honestly, to all, in the same manner, day-in-and-out. It still leaves a void in my heart as if it happened yesterday and I still talk to you each day and find myself about to call you. What I will say is all that I've learned from you, needed you for, ways you shaped me and my life and how much you sacrificed for me and Jill only grows stronger each day. My life lost a piece of light and joy since the day you went Home. I love you, Daddy and I still use your wisdom, strength and love each day.
