“ One thing's for certain, my Momma lived her life to its its fullest, she did what she wanted to do and didn't care who didn't approve!! I definitely got that from her, she had a good heart but, that mouth!! I got that from her too!! I love you Momma, you're already missed and you will, for the rest of my time, be in my heart!! Until we meet again, XOXO

Ginger was my long time best friend known her since I was 15 years old I have a lot of memories and good story's to tell slot things she took with her just like Elisha said she had a mouth and would voice her opinion about anything she had say I guess that's one of the things I loved and respected most about her it's had to believe she's gone never could imagine my life without her being a phone call away I love and miss you so much already I'm so very thankful for Steve bringing her to see my two. Three weeks up till her last week when she couldn't go anymore she was a very strong woman right to the end I never heard a complaint one from her she was a real trooper right to the end and thank you so much Donna bolt for being there I know she went in peace and comfort as she could be I'll allways rember you my best friend ginger fry
