“ I really really miss her y'all. Wanda knew everything about me and I, her. We got saved together, baptized together and went to school and both became nurses. We had so much in common! We had fears and dreams and we both worried about our kids too much. I really thought we would grow old together and sit on the porch in rocking chairs laughing and talking about all the old times . It was not meant to be though. God had better plans. I will see her again . This morning when I was walking a big beautiful red bird landed on a fence near me! I just smiled because I believe she was telling me she's a ok! She is fine now. It's hard to believe that I'll never talk to her again this side of heaven. I'm realizing that I needed her probably more than she needed me. Love you Wanda!! See you in heaven !

“ Dear Dorothy, Donna, and Rita, this is Tracy Chapman Raines. I was so sorry to hear about Wanda. I used to spend weekends with her when we were teenagers. I wanted to come to the service, but had to attend another funeral for my brother-in-law. I will certainly be praying for all of you. Love, Tracy

“ Rita, I am so sorry for your loss. I am thinking of you and praying you find peace. I know it's hard losing a sister and you will never forget her, but it will get easier to accept as time goes on. I love you.
