“ Marshall was a very sweet friend of mine when we were teenagers. We hung out together at Rollerland Skating Rink & had lots of laughs. He was a sweet & respectful young man. Sorry to hear of passing. Prayers for the famy.

Marshall was my brother. He smiled a lot and was happy even though he had a lot of health issues. He and Linda were good together and they took care of each other. We will miss him but I know Mama and Linda were both waiting for him with open arms when he arrived in heaven to spend eternity with his wonderful Savior, Jesus Christ.
