

Worthy Praylo Callaway

September 11, 1933 - October 10, 2020

Worthy Praylo Callaway went to be with the Lord on Saturday, October 10th, 2020 after reaching the age of 87.

Worthy was born in Greenville, South Carolina on September 11th, 1933 to the late Worthy L. Callaway and Violet T. Callaway. He was a devoted husband to the late Rachel S. Callaway. They were happily married for 52 years. He was a beloved father and grandfather. He was known by many names throughout the years; "Dad", "Papa", "Chicken", "My Baby", "Praylo", "Pug" and "Toe". He loved the Lord with his entire heart, and loved his family deeply. He was a member of North Fork Baptist Church.

Worthy was a hard-working man. He started working at a young age, and throughout his life he worked for Byrd's Furniture, Wonder Weeve Carpets, Brookline Carpets and John D. Hollingsworth. He later retired from John D. Hollingsworth.

Along with his parents and wife he was predeceased by three sisters, Louise Callaway, Gladys Hawkins, and Grace Raxter; a brother, James H. Callaway; a granddaughter Megan C. Warren; and a son-in-law William F. Barrett.

He was survived by a sister, Virginia Hawkins of Travelers Rest; two brothers, Lewis R. Callaway of Pisqah Forest, N.C., and Carl D. Callaway of Danielsville, Ga; a son, Timothy P. Callaway of Waynesville, N.C.; a daughter, Violet C. Barrett of Cowpens; a granddaughter, Margaret D. Eggert (Michael) of Travelers Rest; two grandsons, Mitchell C. Callaway of Greenville, and Steven W. Callaway of Cowpens (Kaitlin); and four great-grandsons, Ashton and Zackary Eggert of Travelers Rest, and Elijah and Gabriel Callaway of Cowpens.

Services will be at North Fork Baptist Church on Tuesday, October 20th, 2020.
